Terms and Agreements

Basic Editing includes minor adjustments to lighting and simple object removal. Delivery times may vary during peak times however we will always inform of any delays as early as possible. Floor plans to be redrawn are subject to approval. Presentation of properties is the responsibility of the vendor. Our photographers will make small adjustments however take no responsibility for poor presentation. Where the property is tenanted and a representative of the real estate is not present, the property will be photographed 'as is'. In the case of wet weather, we recommend rescheduling.

Where rescheduling is not possible, we will return to the property for external photographs at our earliest convenience.

Image Licencing

A licence is granted to the client for all media provided for use for the duration of the property listing, for the purpose of advertising the sale or rent of the property only. The licence becomes valid only once the invoice for the property has been paid in full. Usage by third parties, including Estate Agents not included in the original listing of the property requires written approval and a new licence agreement. Distribution of media for purposes beyond the licence agreement is prohibited without prior written approval from Real Estate Photos Australia Pty Ltd ("RE Photos") and may attract additional licensing costs. Copyright of all media remains with RE Photos, and may be used in the promotion and advertising of RE Photos. RE Photos reserves the right to relicence any media to third parties.
